Tsou-Ma-Lai Farm is a recreational agriculture area operated with dedication by the Tainan City Farmers' Association; it is also a recreational/vacation center along Provincial Highway 84 recognized by the Tourism Bureau, Ministry of Transportation and Communications. This Farm is surrounded on three sides by the Zengwen River's middle and lower reaches, and encircled by Wushan Ridge of the Alishan Mountains, forming a paradisaical natural habitat. The Farm has a vast space of 120 hectares, including 40 hectares of New Zealand Ranch Prairie; it is so magnificent that no other place in Taiwan can match it. Everywhere you look is green pasture and forest. A study found that this Farm has more than 150 species of wild animals, including several protected species.

Tsou-Ma-Lai Farm is a multi-function, full-accommodation travel destination, a paradise for all seasons ideal for individual or group itineraries, one-night or an extended stay, and one-stop or multi-stop. Its reputation is on the rise domestically and internationally and favorable comments and guests are increasing every day. It offers a relaxed and joyful stay for all occasions, whether conference, training, or group leisure activities.

The Water World (SPA) is an area suitable for the whole family to have fun together in the summer. It has a large waterslide to make adults and children have fun. However, you must bring your own swimsuit and swimming cap.

The Agricultural Museum combines food and agriculture to operate. Through the narrator guide commentary and ecological experience courses, let everyone know the source of food and ingredients in life, and cultivate the correct concept of diet.

Lion Forest The Subtropical Botanical Garden has a wealth of plants and a lot of ecology. Very suitable for mom and dad to take a child to visit. Also suitable for schools to educate children. If you don't know where to go, you may wish to take a look at this place!
